

Indicator 38

Resilience of Forest- Dependent Communities

Framework

Purpose

Generate

a national level picture of the resilience of forest-dependent communities

Community Capitals

Comprehensive and integrated

Track existence and changes in community capitals

Discern the changing resilience of forest
communities

Metric Selection

Multiple metrics developed, tested, available

Select those most salient to Indicator 38

Methodology

Data collected at community level

Primary and secondary data

Stratification scheme to select sample communities

Compare and aggregate to national level

Breakout Session Question

“What are the important challenges that must be addressed in order to develop the measurement protocol for Indicator 38?”