

Appendix 5. What Did You Find Most Useful in the 2003 Report? – Full Table

What Did You Find Most Useful in the 2003 Report?
		Total Responses (N=154)	% of Responses (N=113)
Overall Context Information		30	27%
	Context of Montreal Process	4	4%
	Overview of US MP C&I Process	9	8%
	Provides a good framework for thinking about SFM across different stakeholders	7	6%
	Valuable context regarding transition to sustainability and forest policy	8	7%
	Good to see how broadly the value of forests is appreciated	2	2%
General Explanatory Information		75	66%
	Explanation why each indicator is important (what the info means)	15	13%
	Availability of existing information on each indicator	6	5%
	Data on specific indicators	17	15%
	Identification of future needs and data gaps	4	4%
	Indicator summaries (National trends)	18	16%
	Summary of Results	15	13%
Practical Guidelines for Use		23	20%
	Provides Framework and Context for States/Locals to step down the data for local mgmt goals and plans	12	11%
	Provides information on how to measure and monitor indicators	4	4%
	Useful information for teaching, training, and proposal writing	4	4%
	Useful reporting framework	3	3%
Particular Information of Use		26	23%
	Most Useful: Facts and data	7	6%
	Most Useful: Tables, maps, charts, graphs	11	10%
	Most Useful: References	2	2%
	Most Useful: Great to have all this information in one place	6	5%